

Centrifuge System

How does it work?

A centrifuge works by rotational force in order to increase gravitational force on the product being separated. In the case of our machine it generates 1200 times the force of gravity.

